Serio and Eclipse, registered the Works with the Register of Copyrights on July 2, 2018 and July 2, 2019, and was assigned the registration numbers VA 2-109-184 and VA 2-158-371, copies of which are enclosed.

Infringement by Sports Moments Plus, LLC ("SMP")

We have enclosed contemporaneous evidence of the infringement by SMP. In addition to the infringement, Eclipse's photograph was very obviously cropped as shown on the attached. You have employed our client's Works in at least the manner indicated in the evidence attached. Your unauthorized use commenced on at least the date indicated above. You are fully aware that the Works you used are our client's Works. No one from your company ever sought a license from our client to use the Works for any purpose.

You have copied, displayed and distributed our client's Works without permission, license or consent. The use of a creator's photographic image without written consent or license violates the United States Code, Title 17, and The Copyright Act. The Copyright Act provides for entry of an injunction directing removal of the offending materials pending litigation. This letter shall serve as formal notice that you immediately cease and desist all unauthorized uses of our client's Works. Any such further uses shall be at your peril.

If you possess a contract, license, agreement or writing on which you will rely for authorization of your use of our client's Works, please provide us with this evidence so we may avoid further controversy or litigation. Otherwise, we will be forced to assume that your use violated the law.

Damages

Copyright law provides several different elements of compensation to Eclipse when a work is infringed or altered. Section 504 permits Eclipse to recover actual damages plus "any additional profits of the infringer that are attributable to the infringement and are not taken into account in computing the actual damages," or statutory damages of up to $150,000 per work infringed if the registration predated the infringement. Eclipse can present both damages theories to the jury and select the higher award any time prior to entry of judgment.

Academic studies have demonstrated that the use of good quality photographs more effectively market and advertise products and drive sales. Eclipse's photographs are of the highest quality. Eclipse's photographs are also scarce since it is one of the only sources of such quality photographs.

Eclipse's damages are not limited to what it would have agreed to license the Works for prior to the infringement. Rather, Eclipse's actual damages will be measured by the fair market value of the photograph considering SMP's use to sell and promote its business. Eclipse's actual damages must be measured in light of SMP's use of Eclipse's high quality and unique Works.

This is consistent with federal courts' approach to broadly construing the term "actual damages" to favor victims of infringement. See, e.g., Davis v. Gap, Inc., 246 F.3d 152, 164 (2d Cir. 2001). The fair market value approach for calculating damages is an accepted approach to valuing the defendants' uses of photographs. See Leonard v. Stemtech Int'l, Inc., Nos. 15-3198, 15-3247, 2016 U.S. App. LEXIS 15565 (3d Cir. Aug. 24, 2016). In addition, Eclipse can offer evidence of the actual cost to take the photograph infringed on a time and materials basis.

Section 504 of the Copyright Act permits Eclipse to recover actual damages plus "any additional profits of the infringer that are attributable to the infringement and are not taken into account in computing the actual damages." Therefore, Eclipse will also be entitled to SMP's profits from the infringement, based upon the revenue SMP earned in connection with the use of Eclipse's Works.

Alternatively, Eclipse could seek statutory damages for infringement in an amount of up to $30,000 per work infringed if the registration predated the infringement. There is also the possibility that a judge or jury could determine that SMP's infringement was willful. If SMP's infringement was shown to be willful, the statutory damage award would increase to an amount up to $150,000 per work infringed.

Demand

In order to determine how to proceed, please provide us with information and documents showing:

1. the full nature and extent of the use of our client's Works, in any and all formats;
2. representative copies in any and all tangible form and media in which our client's Works were incorporated or employed; and
3. the source of the Works.

Upon receipt of this information we will consider and determine an appropriate amount required to be paid to our client in compensation.
